

Chasing Sunrise

Bernard and Tina Buswell

Thirty-One years husband and wife duo.

Current repertoire includes popular tunes over multiple genres and decades or straight jazz standards. Nice variety for all in attendance!

Bernard has been playing guitar for over 40 years. Initially self taught he attended UNLV's Jazz program and has since played not only with his wife but with several jazz, funk, and country bands. He gets his unique sound with the use of harmonics and melodic improvisation.

Tina has a very sweet quality to her voice. Much emotion is felt as she sings songs that touch her, such as the 'The Nearness of You' as well as being all about the sass when singing 'Mama's Broken Heart' or 'All About the Bass'.

Tower sound system used for duo venues.

Booking available as a duo, trio or full band.

'I hired Tina and Bernard for several important customer events at a high-end resort I manage. Their music is fantastic, and they are reliable. A bonus to me is that they look great and mingle well with patrons. They are the whole package and I would highly recommend them.'
